

Local weather/traffic content should not be regulated--especially a subscription fee-based environment. If I'm willing to pay for this service to get uninterrupted information, then it should not be censored.